КОНТРОЛЬНАЯ РАБОТА №1

Вариант 1

Задание 1. Прочитайте и письменно переведите текст на русский язык.

Large hotels usually offer their guests different kinds of services. At the laundry they can have their things washed and pressed. At the dry cleaner's they can clean their clothes. At the shoes repair shop they can have their shoes mended and polished.

Hotel restaurants have a Room Service department for the guests. Room service is the service of food or beverages in guests' rooms. The Room Service department works together with the kitchen of the restaurant. Hotels are often judged by the standard of the room service they provide. Five-star hotels provide room service for at least 18 hours of the day, but more often they provide 24-hour service, and that service must at all times be friendly, quick and efficient.

The dishes available for service in rooms are listed on a special room service menu.

The guests can order:

- Breakfast from 6 am to 11 am
- All day dining from 11 am to 11 pm
- A la carte dishes from 7 pm to 10 pm
- Night owl menu from 11 pm to 6 am

Most orders to Room Service, are given by telephone. The waiters from the Room Service bring the dishes that were ordered by the guests on trays and trolleys. They usually knock on the door three times and say loudly, "Room Service". When the door is opened the waiter enters the room and greets the guest. The guest tells where to place the tray or trolley with dishes. Sarah: Yes. Hallo. I'd like to reserve a room for me and my husband, please.

Tony: Certainly, madam.

Sarah: Do you have a double room for next Thursday?

Tony: Just a moment. Let me check.

Sarah: Oh, and we'd like a room with a balcony facing a courtyard. Non-smoking, if possible.

Tony: Ok, that would be one of our business suites. They all have queen size beds.

Sarah: That's fine.

Tony: Yes. We have a room. How many nights are you staying?

Sarah: Three: Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January tenth through the twelfth.

Tony: Ok, we have a room available, non-smoking.

Sarah: Good, how much is it?

Tony: It's two hundred and fifty dollars per night including breakfast.

Sarah: Ok, that'll be fine. And could you reserve a table for us in the restaurant? You see, we're arriving in the evening at about 7:30.

Tony: Of course. Would you like me to book a table for you, say, at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening?

The menu

The word menu means:

- A list of dishes served in this restaurant
- The list of dishes and wines with prices. Sometimes it is called bill of fare. It is usually printed in the form of a card and each guest receives a copy of the menu. In popular fast food restaurants there are one or two big menus on blackboards.

The structure of menu

The classical French menu has more than twelve courses. Modern menus usually have two or three courses:

- Appetizers or snacks
- Soups
- Entrées
- Main courses
- Desserts

Many restaurants call the first three courses «starters».

1. Appetizers can be hors-d'oeuvres, pâtés, or natural oysters. These dishes are usually cold. They stimulate the appetite and are served at the beginning of the meal.

2. Soups may be thick potage or thin consommé. Soups are usually served hot, but can be served cold.

3. The entree in the classical French menu is a course served between the fish and the main meat courses. In the modern menu it can be seafood dishes, salads, small fried sausages or fish.

4. The main course is the most substantial course of the meal. Guests usually choose their main courses first and then select other courses. When chefs design menus, they usually start with the main course and then plan the other courses.

КОНТРОЛЬНАЯ РАБОТА №3

Задание 1. Прочитайте и письменно переведите два первых абзаца в тексте на русский язык.

Businesses focusing on providing catering services are varied and multiple. Restaurants offer customers a range of food, drink and service options. At the high end of the market there are a la carte restaurants, so-called because of the type of menu which lists and prices all items individually and prepares dishes to order. Service is generally of a very high standard with waiters/waitresses as well as specialist bar staff and wine waiters and the atmosphere is formal. Within this category, gourmet restaurants are the most expensive, reflecting the high quality of food and beverages and the fact they often have recommendations from important food critics and organisations, which are highly prized.

Examples of specialist restaurants are steakhouses, seafood or vegetarian restaurants. There are also ethnic restaurants providing food and drink from a particular country. The most widespread of these are Italian, Indian and Chinese restaurants. Both ethnic and speciality restaurants can have either an a la carte, table d'hôte or a combination of both kinds of menus.

Nowadays, many restaurants are part of a regional, national or international chain, so menus, service, ambiance and cost are unified and you know exactly what to expect. This is particularly true of fast food outlets, many of which specialise in a particular type or region of cuisine and prepare food which is served and eaten quickly. These can either be eat-in restaurants, which are mostly self-service, or takeaway restaurants where you buy cooked food to eat somewhere else, or sometimes both. Examples include pizzerias, kebab or fish and chip shops. In addition to restaurants, cafes, coffee bars, bars and pubs also provide catering although the focus may be more on drinking than eating. Cafes and coffee bars serve reasonably priced hot and cold drinks and light meals or snacks and are usually only open during the day. Bars and pubs are always open at night but increasingly they are serving food and drinks during the day too. In pubs the food is usually home-made and traditional, whereas bars tend to offer a European-style menu of salads and sandwiches.

Table d'hôte menu restaurants with fixed-priced menus, a set number of courses with choices within each course, are a cheaper alternative. Items on the menu are ready at the same time, rather than made to order. This kind of restaurant is often family-run with a more informal atmosphere.

Food service techniques

The service techniques that you use will depend on the country you are in and your training. The service techniques that are generally used in US are:

- Dishes are served from the left side of the customer and removed from the right side of the customer.

- Beverages are served from the right side of the customer.

How to serve from a platter or bowl?

When serving from a platter you can use the following techniques:

1. Hold the serving fork and spoon in your right hand. the tines of the fork and the bowl of the spoon should be pointing up. the fork will be on top of the spoon. The spoon should go between the index finger and the middle finger. The fork will go between the thumb and index finger.

2. Gently scoop the food into the spoon. Push the fork down to hold the food in place.

3. Hold the serving plate over the edge of the diner's plate and put the food on the plate.

If left-handed persons move their glasses to the left of the cover you may pour from the left. Some people may hold the glass up for you to pour: watch out for this and try not to spill the liquid onto the tablecloth.

Some people may want to drink the same beverage all the time. Keep this in mind. Don't forget to fill their water glass.
